Author Visit

Last Monday we had a visiting author, Eamon Reilly, in school for the morning. He discussed his writing process, where he gets his ideas from and his favourite books and authors. He has written many books and has left several copies of each of his most popular ones in school, should the children wish to buy them. You have received a letter last week listing the books available.

Eamon will return to school in a couple of weeks to collect any unsold books and is also happy to sign any of the books the children have purchased.

Football Fun
Last week, Mrs Vines took a group of children to the football tournament at Ashfield Park School in Ross. The children did amazingly well and played each game with such a good sporting attitude, winning some of our games.
Well done children.

On Friday we took 120 children to the beach at Barry Island. We had a wonderful time and the children's behaviour was excellent across all year groups - they were a credit to the school. The children had great fun digging, building, channelling water and burying in the sand. We found lots of different shells and after the tide had been in, there was lots of sea glass to be seen. We all went for a short paddle at one point, and there were lots of waves to be jumped.

After lunch, where we managed to stay free of seagull attacks, the children all enjoyed a delicious ice cream to round the day off. The weather was kind to us and not a drop of rain fell!

On the way home, lots of children quickly fell asleep and many were saying it was the best trip ever!

All in all...a fabulous day!
